FACTS AND MATTERS

4. OFSL was authorized by the Authority on 10 November 2015 and has Part 4A permission to conduct the following regulated activities in relation to insurance distribution, regulated home finance, designated investment business and consumer credit business:
  - a. Agreeing to carry on a regulated activity;
  - b. Advising on investments (except on pension transfers and pension opt outs);
  - c. Advising on P2P agreements;
  - d. Advising on regulated mortgage contracts;
  - e. Arranging (bringing about) deals in investments;
  - f. Arranging (bringing about) regulated mortgage contracts;
  - g. Credit-broking;
  - h. Debt-counselling;

- i. Making arrangements with a view to transactions in investments; and
  - j. Making arrangements with a view to regulated mortgage contracts.
5. OFSL failed to pay periodic fees and levies owed to the Authority as required under the Handbook under the rules set out in FEES 4.2.1R, 4.3.1R, 5.7.1R, 6.7.1R, 6.7.3R, 7A.3.1R and 13.2.1R. In particular, OFSL failed to pay the following periodic fees and levies:
  - a. an invoice dated 15 September 2021 for £2,234.23 which had been due for payment by 14 December 2021; and
  - b. an invoice dated 23 August 2022 for £1,840.31 which had been due for payment by 22 September 2022.
6. In addition, under SUP 16.3.13R, SUP 16.12.4R, SUP 16.12.28AR and SUP 16.12.29CR (and the further rules specified therein) in Chapter 16 of SUP and DISP 1.10.1R, OFSL is required to submit the Returns to the Authority by the relevant due date. However, OFSL has failed to submit the Returns to the Authority. Furthermore, under SUP 16.10.4R, 16.10.4AR and 16.10.14AAR, OFSL is required to submit the FDA to the Authority by the relevant due date. However, OFSL has failed to submit the FDA to the Authority.
7. The Authority therefore considers that OFSL has failed to provide information to the Authority as is required by the Handbook, namely the information it is required to provide in the Returns and the FDA. There are no other matters that suggest OFSL is carrying on regulated activities.
8. On 9 March 2023, the Authority gave OFSL the Notice which stated that:
  - (a) it appears to the Authority that OFSL is carrying on no regulated activity to which its Part 4A permission relates; and
  - (b) the Authority may take action to cancel OFSL's Part 4A permission unless it responds to the Notice in the manner specified in the directions to the Notice.
9. OFSL failed to respond to the Notice.
10. As a result of the matters specified in paragraph 9 above, on 12 May 2023, the Authority gave OFSL the Further Notice which stated that:
  - a) the Authority considered that OFSL is carrying on no regulated activity to which its Part 4A permission relates; and
  - b) the Authority proposes to cancel OFSL's Part 4A permission on 9 June 2023 unless OFSL takes the steps specified in the directions to the Further Notice.
11. OFSL failed to take the steps specified in the Further Notice.

CANCELLATION OF PART 4A PERMISSION

12. From the facts and matters described above, and having regard to paragraph 1(3) of Schedule 6A to the Act, the Authority considers that OFSL is carrying on no regulated activity to which its Part 4A permission relates. The Authority has therefore decided to cancel OFSL's Part 4A permission. The cancellation of OFSL's Part 4A permission takes effect on 9 June 2023.

13. The statutory and regulatory provisions relevant to this Notice of Decision are set out in the Annexes.

PROCEDURAL MATTERS

15. If OFSL is aggrieved by the decision to cancel its Part 4A permission as set out in this Notice of Decision, OFSL may make an application for an annulment of the Authority's decision under paragraph 4 of Schedule 6A to the Act.
16. OFSL must submit a completed application for an annulment of the Authority's decision to the Authority by 8 June 2024 and in the manner specified by the Authority.

The Tribunal

17. OFSL does not have a right to refer this Notice of Decision to the Tribunal.

(b) monthly, 3 monthly or 6 months after the firm's accounting reference date, as the case may be.”

17. The specific reporting requirements for OFSL are set out in SUP 16.12.3R, SUP 16.12.4R, SUP 16.12.28AR and SUP 16.12.29CR and DISP 1.10.1R which stipulate the type, frequency and due date of each of the regulatory reports which OFSL is required to submit, according to the regulated activities which OFSL has permission to conduct:

19. SUP 16.10.14AAR, which applies where, in complying with SUP 16.10.14R(1), a firm does not need to submit corrected firm details under SUP 16.10.14R(3), specifies that:

“(2) Within 60 business days of its accounting reference date, a firm must submit a report to the Authority confirming that the firm details which it has checked under SUP 16.10.14R(1) remain accurate, using the appropriate online systems accessible through the Authority’s website.”

Guidance concerning the use of the Authority’s additional power to cancel an authorised firm’s Part 4A permission on its own initiative

20. Guidance on the use of the Authority’s power to cancel an Authority-authorized person’s Part 4A permissions on its own initiative under Schedule 6A to the Act is set out in SUP and EG.

21. EG 8.5.2A states that the Authority may cancel the Part 4A permission of a firm that is an Authority-authorized person, under Schedule 6A of the Act, if:

(1) it appears to the Authority that the firm is carrying on no regulated activity to which the permission relates; and

(2) the firm has failed to respond as directed by the Authority to notices served by the Authority to the firm under paragraph 2 of Schedule 6A.

22. EG 8.5.2A also states that Schedule 6A specifies that the Authority may form the view that a firm is carrying on no such regulated activity on the basis of its failure to pay a periodic fee or levy or provide information to the Authority, in each case as required by the Handbook.

23. SUP sets out further guidance on the Authority’s power under Schedule 6A of the Act. In particular, SUP 7.2.2AG(1) states that the Authority may decide to cancel an Authority-authorized person’s Part 4A permission using its powers under Schedule 6A of the Act:

(1) if that person appears to the Authority not to be carrying on any regulated activity to which the permission relates, including, without restriction, if the person has failed to:

(a) pay a periodic fee or levy under the Handbook; or

(b) provide the Authority with information required under the Handbook; and

(2) if that person, when served by the Authority with two notices under paragraph 2 of Schedule 6A of the Act, has not:

(a) responded in the manner directed, in those notices or otherwise, by the Authority; nor

(b) taken other steps as may also be directed by the Authority;

the second of which notices will specify the effective date of the proposed cancellation.

24. SUP 7.2.2DG states that:

- (1) the Authority's additional own-initiative variation power under Schedule 6A to the Act (which includes the power to cancel the Part 4A permission of an Authority-authorized firm under Schedule 6A of the Act and references to "additional own-initiative variation power in the remainder of this Notice of Decision should be read as such) has, unlike the Authority's own-initiative variation power under section 55J of the Act, a single basis: that it appears to the Authority that the relevant Authority-authorized person is not carrying on any regulated activity to which its Part 4A permission relates.
- (2) if the Authority uses its additional own-initiative variation power, it is therefore more likely to cancel the relevant firm's Part 4A permission, rather than merely varying it by removing or amending the description of one or more such activities or by imposing one or more limitations.
- (3) the Authority will, however, consider all relevant facts and circumstances, including, without restriction:
  - (a) the relevant firm's responses, if any, to the notices given by the Authority under paragraph 2 of Schedule 6A; and
  - (b) if applicable, the factors described in SUP 6.4.22G, including whether there are any matters relating to the firm requiring investigation, before deciding whether to use its additional own-initiative variation power and whether to use it to cancel or vary.

25. SUP 7.2.7G(1) states that a firm has no right of referral to the Tribunal in respect of the Authority exercising its additional own-initiative variation power, under Schedule 6A to the Act, on the Authority-authorized firm's Part 4A permission.
