 - (b) credit broking;
 - (c) debt adjusting; and

Information submitted to the Authority by the Firm in regulatory returns for the period 1 December 2023 to 30 November 2024 shows that the Firm is not carrying on any regulated activities for which it holds a Part 4A permission. There are no other matters that suggest the Firm is carrying on regulated activities.
7. On 5 August 2025, the Authority gave the Firm the Notice which stated that:
 - (a) it appears to the Authority that the Firm is carrying on no regulated activity to which its Part 4A permission relates; and

CANCELLATION OF PART 4A PERMISSION

11. From the facts and matters described above, the Authority considers that the Firm is carrying on no regulated activity to which its Part 4A permission relates. ANNEX ON CANCELLATION OF PART 4A PERMISSION
ON INITIATIVE OF FCA: ADDITIONAL POWER

RELEVANT STATUTORY PROVISIONS

1. The Authority's operational objectives established in section 1B of the Act include protecting and enhancing the integrity of the UK financial system and securing an appropriate degree of protection for consumers.
2. The Authority is authorised by paragraphs 1(1) and (2) of Schedule 6A to the Act to cancel an Authority-authorized person's Part 4A permission, if it appears to the Authority that the Authority-authorized person is carrying on no regulated activity to which the permission relates.
3. The Authority must exercise its power to cancel an Authority-authorized person's Part 4A permission using its additional own initiative power in accordance with the procedure set out in paragraph 2 of Schedule 6A to the Act.

RELEVANT HANDBOOK PROVISIONS

4. In exercising its power to cancel an Authority-authorized person's Part 4A permission, the Authority must have regard to the regulatory requirements and guidance published in the Handbook and in regulatory guides, such as EG. The main considerations relevant to the action stated in this Notice of Decision are set out below.

Guidance concerning the use of the Authority's additional power to cancel an authorised firm's Part 4A permission on its own initiative

5. Guidance on the use of the Authority's power to cancel an Authority-authorized person's Part 4A permissions on its own initiative under Schedule 6A to the Act is set out in SUP and EG.
6. EG 8.5.2A states that the Authority may cancel the Part 4A permission of a firm that is an Authority-authorized person, under Schedule 6A of the Act, if:
 - (1) it appears to the Authority that the firm is carrying on no regulated activity to which the permission relates; and
 - (2) the firm has failed to respond as directed by the Authority to notices served by the Authority to the firm under paragraph 2 of Schedule 6A.
7. EG 8.5.2A also states that Schedule 6A specifies that the Authority may form the view that a firm is carrying on no such regulated activity on the basis of its failure to provide information to the Authority, in each case as required by the Handbook.
8. SUP sets out further guidance on the Authority's power under Schedule 6A of the Act. In particular, SUP 7.2.2AG states that the Authority may decide to cancel an Authority-authorized person's Part 4A permission using its powers under Schedule 6A of the Act:
 - (1) if that person appears to the Authority not to be carrying on any regulated activity to which the permission relates ;
 - (2) if that person, when served by the Authority with two notices under paragraph 2 of Schedule 6A of the Act, has not:

(a) responded in the manner directed, in those notices or otherwise, by the Authority; nor

(b) taken other steps as may also be directed by the Authority;

the second of which notices will specify the effective date of the proposed cancellation.

9. SUP 7.2.2CG states that, apart from the circumstances described in SUP 7.2.2AG(1), the Authority may also form the view, under Schedule 6A of the Act, that a firm is no longer conducting any regulated activity to which its permission relates in light of, without restriction:

(1) one or more reports, provided to the Authority by the firm, under SUP 16 or otherwise, indicating that it is no longer doing so.

10. SUP 7.2.2DG states that:

(1) the Authority's additional own-initiative variation power under Schedule 6A to the Act (which includes the power to cancel the Part 4A permission of an Authority-authorised firm under Schedule 6A of the Act and references to "additional own-initiative variation power in the remainder of this Notice of Decision should be read as such) has, unlike the Authority's own-initiative variation power under section 55J of the Act, a single basis: that it appears to the Authority that the relevant Authority-authorised person is not carrying on any regulated activity to which its Part 4A permission relates.

(2) if the Authority uses its additional own-initiative variation power, it is therefore more likely to cancel the relevant firm's Part 4A permission, rather than merely varying it by removing or amending the description of one or more such activities or by imposing one or more limitations.

(3) the Authority will, however, consider all relevant facts and circumstances, including, without restriction:

(a) the relevant firm's responses, if any, to the notices given by the Authority under paragraph 2 of Schedule 6A; and

(b) if applicable, the factors described in SUP 6.4.22G, including whether there are any matters relating to the firm requiring investigation, before deciding whether to use its additional own-initiative variation power and whether to use it to cancel or vary.

11. SUP 7.2.7G(1) states that a firm has no right of referral to the Tribunal in respect of the Authority exercising its additional own-initiative variation power, under Schedule 6A to the Act, on the Authority-authorised firm's Part 4A permission.

ANNULMENT OF DECISION TO CANCEL OR VARY A PART 4A PERMISSION UNDER SCHEDULE 6A

1. If any person currently or previously holding a permission given by the Authority under Part 4A of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (“the Act”) is aggrieved by the Authority’s decision to cancel or vary their Part 4A permission under paragraph 1 of Schedule 6A to the Act, they may apply to the Authority under paragraph 4 of Schedule 6A to the Act for an annulment of that decision.
2. As required by paragraph 4 of Schedule 6A to the Act, a completed application for annulment must be made before the end of the period of 12 months beginning with the day on which the cancellation or variation took effect. An application for annulment can, however, be made before the relevant cancellation or variation takes effect.
3. Paragraph 4 of Schedule 6A to the Act requires the Authority to determine an application for annulment before the end of the period of 6 months, beginning with the date on which the Authority received the completed application.
4. Paragraph 4 of Schedule 6A to the Act permits an application for annulment to be withdrawn by the applicant firm, by giving the Authority written notice, at any time before the Authority determines the application.
5. A completed application, signed where indicated, must be submitted via Connect.
6. Paragraph 5 of Schedule 6A to the Act permits the Authority to annul a decision to cancel or vary an Authority-authorized firm’s Part 4A permission with conditions but specifies that the Authority can only annul, with or without conditions, if it is satisfied that it is just and reasonable to do so in all the circumstances.
7. Paragraph 5 of Schedule 6A to the Act provides that the Authority’s power to annul with conditions includes the power:
 - (a) to remove or describe differently a regulated activity specified in the permission, and
 - (b) to withdraw or vary an approval given under section 59 of the Act that has effect in relation to the carrying on of a regulated activity specified in the permission,provided that the activity in question was one to which the permission related immediately before the decision being annulled was taken.
8. The effect of an annulment, as set out in paragraph 6 of Schedule 6A to the Act, is that the cancellation or variation in question is treated as not having taken place. Firms considering whether to apply for annulment should note that, as a result, all of the statutory and other obligations to which the firm, their staff and others would have otherwise been subject, had there been no cancellation or variation, will, subject to the below, retrospectively apply to them on any annulment.
9. Under paragraph 6 of Schedule 6A to the Act, where, as a result of an annulment, a person becomes subject to an obligation imposed by or under primary or secondary UK or devolved or retained direct EU legislation, and the Authority has functions in relation to that obligation, the
