

Annex A

Please publish an Excel spreadsheet separately displaying the FCA's Product Sales Data with figures for home credit loan agreements and high-cost short-term credit. Please display home credit loan agreements and high-cost short-term credit as separate items.

For home credit loan agreements please include:

1. Number of firms
2. Number of loans
3. Total value of loans
4. Total amount payable

For high-cost short-term credit please include:

1. Number of firms
2. Number of loans
3. Total value of loans
4. Total amount payable

Please may you provide the figures stated above from Q1 of 2022 to Q2 of 2023 (or whatever is the most recent quarter).

For your convenience, I have attached a spreadsheet with the aforementioned categories.

If the requested information is not available, please may the FCA publish Products Sales Data for home credit loan agreements and high-cost short-term credit less any personal or identifying data that may prohibit publication under the Financial Services and Markets Act in Excel format.
