"the Overdue Balance" means the amount owed by APL to the Authority comprising an invoice dated 21 July 2016 for £145 for regulatory fees and levies for the period 1 April 2016 to 31 March 2017, which was due for payment by 20 August 2016; and an invoice dated 9 August 2016 for £250 for an administrative fee for late submission of a regulatory return, which was due for payment by 8 September 2016;

"the Principles" means the Authority's Principles for Businesses;

"the suitability Threshold Condition" means the threshold condition set out in paragraph 2E of Schedule 6 to the Act;

"the Tribunal" means the Upper Tribunal (Tax and Chancery Chamber); and

"the Warning Notice" means the Warning Notice issued by the Authority to APL dated 19 June 2017.

REASONS FOR THE ACTION

6. On the basis of the facts and matters and conclusions described in the Warning Notice, and in the Decision Notice, it appears to the Authority that APL is failing to satisfy the suitability Threshold Condition, in that the Authority is not satisfied that APL is a fit and proper person having regard to all the circumstances, including whether APL managed its business in such a way as to ensure that its affairs were conducted in a sound and prudent manner.
7. APL has failed to pay the Overdue Balance and it has not been open and co-operative in all its dealings with the Authority, in that APL has failed to respond to the Authority's repeated requests for it to pay the Overdue Balance, and has thereby failed to comply with Principle 11 of the Principles and to satisfy the Authority that it is ready, willing and organised to comply with the requirements and standards under the regulatory system.
8. These failures, which are significant in the context of APL's suitability, lead the Authority to conclude that APL has failed to manage its business in such a way as to ensure that its affairs are conducted in a sound and prudent manner, that it is not a fit and proper person, and that it is therefore failing to satisfy the Threshold Conditions in relation to the regulated activities for which it has had a permission.
