“the Overdue Balance” means the outstanding sum of £830.96 owed by BRGL to the Authority comprising: an invoice for £580.96 for annual fees and levies for the period 1 April 2019 to 31 March 2020, which was due for payment by 7 November 2019 and an invoice for £250.00 for an administrative fee for late submission of regulatory return, which was due for payment by 12 December 2019;

“the Principles” means the Authority’s Principles for Businesses;

“the Tribunal” means the Upper Tribunal (Tax and Chancery Chamber); and

“the Warning Notice” means the Warning Notice issued by the Authority to BRGL dated 29 November 2022.

REASONS FOR THE ACTION

6. On the basis of the facts and matters and conclusions described in the Warning Notice, and in the Decision Notice, it appears to the Authority that BRGL is failing to satisfy the suitability Threshold Condition, in that the Authority is not satisfied that BRGL is a fit and proper person having regard to all the circumstances, including whether BRGL managed its business in such a way as to ensure that its affairs were conducted in a sound and prudent manner.
7. BRGL has failed to pay the Overdue Balance and it has not been open and co-operative in all its dealings with the Authority, in that BRGL has failed to respond to the Authority’s repeated requests for it to pay the Overdue Balance, and has thereby failed to comply with Principle 11 of the Principles and to satisfy the Authority that it is ready, willing and organised to comply with the requirements and standards of the regulatory system.
8. These failures, which are significant in the context of BRGL’s suitability, lead the Authority to conclude that BRGL has failed to manage its business in such a way as to ensure that its affairs are conducted in a sound and prudent manner, that it is not a fit and proper person, and that it is therefore failing to satisfy the Threshold

Conditions in relation to the regulated activities for which it has had a Part 4A permission.
