Freedom of Information: Right to know request

Thank you for your request under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 ("the Act"), dated 21 October 2019, for the following information:

"Within the underlying Retirement Income market data 2018/19 released on the 25/9/2019 underneath table 14 a note states:

" Note: We also collected data on unit-linked, with profits, deferred and flexible annuities but have not published this due to the very limited number of providers selling these types of annuities"

Please may I have this MI for the same time period (2015 onwards)."

Your request has now been considered, and I can confirm that we hold the information you are seeking, as set out in the attached Annex A.

Please note that the figures provided in Annex A reflect data as submitted to us by provider firms. As explained in the 2018/2019 retirement income data publication, the population of reporting firms changed from a sample (reporting periods up to March 2018) to a full population of regulated firms (April 2018 onwards).

If you are unhappy with the decision made in relation to your request, you have the right to request an internal review. If you wish to exercise this right you should contact us within 40 working days of the date of this response.

If you are not content with the outcome of the internal review, you also have a right of appeal to the Information Commissioner at Information Commissioner's Office, Wycliffe House, Water Lane, Wilmslow, Cheshire SK9 5AF. Telephone: 01625 545 700. Website: www.ico.org.uk.

Yours sincerely
