

Arrears – peer-to-peer lending

If you are behind with payments and have received an arrears notice here is some important information to help you.

Don't ignore the problem.

- Work out how much money you owe. To do this, make a list of all those you owe money to. A debt adviser can help you.
- Contact the peer-to-peer lending platform which arranged your loan. Let them know you are having problems. They may be able to discuss options for paying back what you owe.
- Get free help and advice. Your rights and options depend on the type of agreement, and the law can be complex. You can get free independent help and advice from a number of organisations – see over for details.
- Put priority debts first. Some debts are more urgent than others because the consequences of not paying them can be more serious than for other debts – eg mortgage, rent, council tax/ rates, or gas or electricity arrears. A debt adviser can help you to budget to keep your finances under control.
- Think carefully before borrowing money to repay debts. Get advice before borrowing against your home – you will pay more in the long run and you risk losing your home.

- You may be able to ask a court for more time to repay a debt. But only in some circumstances. Speak to a debt adviser before considering court action. Keep copies of letters and emails in case these are needed by the court.

Doing nothing could make things worse.

- You could end up paying more in interest and charges. Missed payments could affect your credit rating and make it more difficult to get credit in future. If you continue not to make payment this could lead to legal action against you for repayment or return of goods on hire purchase.
