TAKE NOTICE: The Financial Services Authority of 25 The North Colonnade, Canary Wharf, London, E14 5HS (“the FSA”) has taken the following action:

1. ACTION

- 1.1. For the reasons listed below and pursuant to section 45 of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (“the Act”), the FSA has decided to vary the permission granted to Jarvis Investment Management Limited (“the Firm”) pursuant to Part IV of the Act by imposing the following requirements on the Firm.
- 1.2. The Firm is required to refrain from taking any action, omitting to take any action or permitting any action to be taken which has, or may have, the effect of withdrawing money from the Account including in respect of any monies which may be deposited to the Account after the date of this notice unless the FSA has confirmed, in writing, that it has no objection to those proposals.

1.3. The Firm is required to notify the FSA in writing immediately:

- a) if it receives any instruction to withdraw money from the Account, with a copy of that instruction;
- b) of whether any instruction to withdraw money from the Account has the authorisation of the Supervisory Commissioner of ARM, with a copy of that authorisation if in writing or details of that authorisation if oral;
- c) of all withdrawals and deposits to the Account, as they occur, together with the running account balance.

1.4. The Firm is required, by 10am on 10 November 2011, to:

- (a) acknowledge receipt of this notice and confirm that the Firm will comply with the requirements in this notice pending further proceedings in this matter; or
- (b) confirm that when proposing to take any action in relation to Pending Investors' funds in the Account (as defined below), it will continue to use the same client reference numbers as referred to in the Appendix to this notice. If the Firm is to change its client reference numbers in relation to the Account and/or the client reference numbers shown in the Appendix to this notice in any way, it will not do so without the prior approval of the FSA;
- (c) notify the FSA of any reason why the Firm will be unable to do so.

1.5. In this notice:

“Account” means that account bearing sort code 55-70-13 and account number 78322936 held in the name of Jarvis Investment Management Limited, but only in relation to those funds in the Account referable to the list of client reference numbers given in the Appendix to this notice.

“ARM” means ARM Asset Backed Securities SA, a Luxembourg-based securitisation vehicle.

“CSSF” means the Luxembourg regulator – the Commission de Surveillance du Secteur Financier.

“Pending Investors” mean those consumers who handed over money to ARM whilst it could not issue bonds.

“Supervisory Commissioner” has the meaning in Article 29 of the Luxembourg Law of 22 March 2004 on securitisation being, in summary, the CSSF unless the Luxembourg district court dealing with commercial matters appoints one or more other persons as supervisory commissioners.

2. EFFECTIVE DATE

- 2.1. These requirements take effect immediately.

3. REASONS FOR ACTION

- 3.1. The FSA has concluded, on the basis of the facts and matters described below, that it is desirable to impose the requirements above in order to secure the appropriate degree of protection for consumers.
- 3.2. The FSA considers, on the basis of those facts and matters, that it is necessary, in order to secure the appropriate degree of protection for consumers, for the action specified above to take immediate effect.
- 3.3. The FSA makes it clear that there is no suggestion of any kind of misconduct in relation to the Firm in the context of any of the matters contained in this Notice.

Relevant Statutory Provisions

- 3.4. The FSA's regulatory objectives established in section 2(2) of the Act include the protection of consumers.
- 3.5. By section 425A of the Act, consumer is defined, inter alia, as persons who use or have used services provided by authorised persons in carrying on regulated activities, or authorised persons who are investment firms, or credit institutions, in providing relevant ancillary services, or have relevant rights or interests in relation to any of those services, and have a right or interest which is derived from or is otherwise attributable to the use of the services by others.

- 3.6. By section 45 of the Act, the FSA may (among other things) exercise its power to vary an authorised person's Part IV permission in any of the ways mentioned in section 44(1) of the Act where it is desirable to exercise that power in order to meet any of its regulatory objectives.
- 3.7. By section 45(4) of the Act the FSA's power to vary a Part IV permission extends to including any provision in the permission as varied that could be included if a fresh permission were being given in response to an application for authorisation.
- 3.8. By section 43(1) of the Act, a Part IV permission may include such requirements as the FSA considers appropriate. By section 43(2), a requirement may be imposed so as to require the person concerned to take specified action, or to refrain from taking specified action. By section 43(3), a requirement may extend to activities which are not regulated activities.
- 3.9. Section 53(3) of the Act allows such variations to take effect immediately if the FSA reasonably considers that it is necessary for the variations to take effect immediately.

Relevant Regulatory Provisions

- 3.10. The FSA's policy for exercising its own-initiative power to vary an authorised person's Part IV permission is set out in chapter 8 of the Enforcement Guide ("EG"), and chapter 7.3 of the Supervision Manual ("SUP"), which are part of the FSA Handbook.
- 3.11. EG 8.1(3) reflects the provisions of section 45 of the Act that the FSA may use its own-initiative power to vary or cancel the permission of an authorised firm where it is desirable to do so in order to meet any of its regulatory objectives.
- 3.12. EG 8.1B provides that the FSA will have regard to its regulatory objectives and the range of regulatory tools that are available to it when it considers how it should deal with a concern about a firm. The FSA will also have regard to the principle that a restriction imposed on a firm should be proportionate to the objectives the FSA is seeking to achieve.
- 3.13. EG 8.3 provides that the FSA will exercise its formal powers under section 45 of the Act, where the FSA considers it is appropriate to ensure a firm meets its regulatory requirements. EG 8.3(4) specifies that the FSA may consider it appropriate to exercise its powers where the imposition of a formal statutory requirement may assist the firm to take steps which would otherwise be difficult because of legal obligations owed to third parties.

- 3.14. EG 8.6 to 8.9 set out the FSA's policy on exercising its own-initiative power to vary an authorised person's Part IV permission in urgent cases.
- 3.15. EG 8.8 provides a non-exhaustive list of situations that will give rise to such serious concerns and states that this is likely to include a situation where there is information indicating significant loss, risk of loss or other adverse effects for consumers, where action is necessary to protect their interests (EG 8.8(1)).
- 3.16. EG 8.9 provides a non-exhaustive list of the factors the FSA may consider when deciding whether an urgent variation of permission is appropriate and includes the extent of any loss or risk of loss or other adverse effect on consumers (EG 8.9(1)).
- 3.17. SUP 7 provides more information about the situations in which the FSA may decide to take formal action in the context of its supervision activities. SUP 7.3 provides further guidance on the criteria for varying a firm's permission. Further, SUP 7.3.4 provides that the FSA may vary a firm's permission with immediate effect where it considers that a delay may be prejudicial to the interests of consumers.

4. FACTS AND MATTERS RELIED UPON

- 4.1. The Firm in its capacity as a receiving agent, is the holder of the Account specified in paragraph 1.5 above.
- 4.2. The Account contains Pending Investors' funds.
- 4.3. Since 2006, ARM had been in the business of offering to the public securities in the form of bonds backed by a portfolio of senior life settlements. The marketing process in the United Kingdom ("UK") was such that an FSA authorised firm acted as distributor of the bonds, approved the bond documentation and provided it to FSA authorised Independent Financial Advisers, who then advised the ultimate investors in the UK and arranged for the purchase of the bonds.

- 4.4. In this way, it is a reasonable inference that investors will have used the services of an FSA authorised person in carrying on regulated activities, or will have relevant rights or interests derived from or otherwise attributable to the use of such services by others.
- 4.5. In 2009, ARM applied to the CSSF, for authorisation as an authorised securitisation firm. The issuance of bonds was suspended by agreement between ARM and the CSSF pending resolution of the application for authorisation, but the bonds continued to be marketed to consumers. This resulted in a number of those consumers becoming Pending Investors.
- 4.6. The Pending Investors in effect handed over money for three different tranches of bonds, depending on when the money was handed over. The tranches are known as tranches 9 to 11.
- 4.7. The money was initially held by receiving agents on behalf of ARM and/ or the FSA authorised firm acting as distributor of the bonds. The money in respect of tranche 9 was transferred from the receiving agents to ARM's general account in Luxembourg, and has been used up in the course of ARM's business.
- 4.8. The money in respect of tranches 10 and 11 remains held by the receiving agents. A proportion of such money sits in the Account.
- 4.9. There is uncertainty as to the correct legal status of the pending investor money, and indeed whether English law or Luxembourg law applies to it. The FSA is of the opinion that this uncertainty could only properly be resolved by a Court decision.
- 4.10. ARM is currently subject to a suspension of payments resulting from the CSSF's decision to refuse ARM's application for authorisation. This appears to be a result of Article 28 of the Luxembourg law of 22 March 2004 on securitisation. This has been disputed by ARM, and a ruling is expected on 10 November 2011.
- 4.11. One possible outcome of this ruling is that the suspension of payments may be lifted, leaving ARM able to make use of the pending investor money currently held by the Firm.

5. CONCLUSIONS

5.1. The facts and matters described above lead the FSA, having regard to its regulatory objectives, to the following conclusions:

- (1) There is a significant degree of risk to the Pending Investors money prior to resolution of the question over ownership of the money; and
- (2) The variation of the Firm's permission to impose the requirements detailed above should take immediate effect to address the FSA's serious concern that there is a risk of loss to consumers.

5.2. The FSA's reasons for making the variation and requirements effective immediately are that:

- (1) there are reasons to consider that the pending investors money may be dealt with by ARM in a manner inconsistent with the interests of those pending investors if the money is not protected; and
- (2) there is a risk that such protection as is currently afforded to the money, that is, the suspension of payments imposed on ARM, may fall away imminently; and
- (3) it is therefore necessary to put in place protection of that money immediately, having regard to the regulatory objective of consumer protection.
