

Transcript - How can firms stay informed about Brexit?

Executive Director of International, Nausicaa Delfas

Firms should regularly visit the FCA website for updates on Brexit. Our Brexit pages contain extensive information for UK firms, EEA firms and consumers across all sectors. It also contains information about the steps firms need to take before exit and after. If you'd like further information in addition to our website pages you can call our Brexit phone line.