

Nhi's apprenticeship story – video transcript

Nhi, Digital Marketing Apprentice

I done my a-levels, fine art, finance and media. University, nah. I just couldn't see myself doing that anymore. I wanted to go through the apprenticeship route.

And then that's when I applied here. FCA yeah, it's good fun. I'm learning a lot more about different programs, different networks and software. That's what I enjoy most, learning what I can apply to my job.

Apprenticeship is so much better, you're learning on the job, you're developing new skills. And you're also earning money which is, which is good.
