Dear

Freedom of Information: Right to know request

Thank you for your request under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 ("the Act") dated 2 October 2018 for the following information:

"The number of FCA investigations linked to cryptocurrencies that have been launched;

-Can this information be divided into the year that each investigation was launched

-If possible can details be provided about the type of investigation

-Please can the information be provided in Excel format."

In answer to your request, I can confirm that there are no past or current investigations into cryptocurrencies (where "investigations" means matters where investigators have been formally appointed).

Yours sincerely
